

Checklist of things to do when you're near retirement

It's a good idea to start planning when you're nearing retirement age. Here's a checklist of things to do so that you'll be ready:

Work out what money you'll have coming in. You can add it to the budgeting for retirement ready reckoner
Get an estimate from Pace DC by logging in to My Account available at coop.co.uk/pensions
Check whether you're entitled to any State retirement benefits
Get an estimate of your State Pension at gov.uk/state-pension-age
Make a list of all the pension plans you've had over your working life
Track down any pension providers that you've lost contact with at gov.uk/find-pension-contact-details
Get in touch with all your pension providers and let them know you're planning for retirement - they'll usually send you important information about your pension
Consider if you have any other savings or investments that you could use in retirement

Think about all of your household bills and any other bills you pay now and how these might change once you retire
Work out what's left to pay on your mortgage (if you have one). You might want to pay off what's left, but you should get financial advice first
Work out what money you'll be left with. Will this be enough to afford things like hobbies and activities, days out or holidays?
Think about whether you need, or want, to boost your retirement income
Make sure that Legal & General have your correct target retirement date

If you are near to your target retirement date
Think about how you want to take your Co-op retirement benefits or visit Legal & General's educational portal at yourpensionoptions.legalandgeneral.com/co-operative
Find an independent financial adviser or get help from Pension Wise so that you know your options for how to take your pension - you might have to pay for financial advice, but it can save you money in the long term
Consider leaving your pension account to someone when you die - there'll be tax implications for doing this, but your adviser, or Pension Wise, will discuss this with you
If you're within four months of your target retirement date and you haven't received a communication from Legal & General about your retirement options, contact them to ask for your retirement pack
